RE: High School Places

Dear Parents,

Offer day for high school places was on 02/03/2020.

Please make sure you contact the school that you have been offered directly to accept your offer. You should only turn down the offer if you have been offered a place at another school.

If you decide to refuse your offer, you must let the offered school know. You must tell them which school they will be attending so that they know they are receiving an education.

If you didn't get your preferred school, you can appeal this with the school and you can be added to their waiting list. Local schools have recently advised they will up their places for year 7 to assist with the demand in the area. Additional places will be allocated from their waiting lists.

Waiting lists, appeals and additional information can be found at <https://www.leeds.gov.uk/residents/children-families-and-carers/schools-and-learning/school-places/admissions-secondary-schools>

Important Dates to remember

16th March	Waiting list cut off
30th March	Deadline for Appeals and accepting offers
March to August	Places allocated from waiting lists
May to July	Appeals held
September	Start secondary school

If you need any assistance, please contact us.

Regards

Mrs Benatmane, Mrs Ahmed and Mrs Khattun
